Students Depend On Board For Guidance

Carrollton School Board (L. TO R.), Louis Diechman, Benjamin Schrader, Mrs. Knight, John Golomb, Steven Vlahon, Jerry Wesley, Ken Wren, and Hector Guerin, Jr., (BACK TO CAMERA), missing is Mrs. Thelma Nichols.

CHS Principal, EDWARD GWIAZDOWSKI.

Assistant Principal, ROBERT WEISE.

Mr. Weise discusses problems; which is just one of the many jobs of our Assistant Principal.

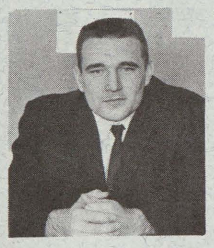

Acting Superintendent, LOUIS DEICHMAN.

In October Mr. Louis Diechman, former Principal of Carrollton High School, was named acting Superintendent of schools after the retirement of Mr. Charles P. Murphy. Mr. Edward Gwiazdowski was appointed Principal. Filling the vacancy of assistant Principal created by Mr. Gwiazdowski is Mr. Robert Wiese, a former math teacher at Carrollton High School.

This year two new secretaries were hired. Miss Lynn Wiltse worked in the office with Mrs. Cardinal and Mrs. Gardner worked in the guidance office. The fourteen office workers typed and ran errands and the janitors and cooks kept busy with the maintenance jobs and lunches.

A Song of Harmony

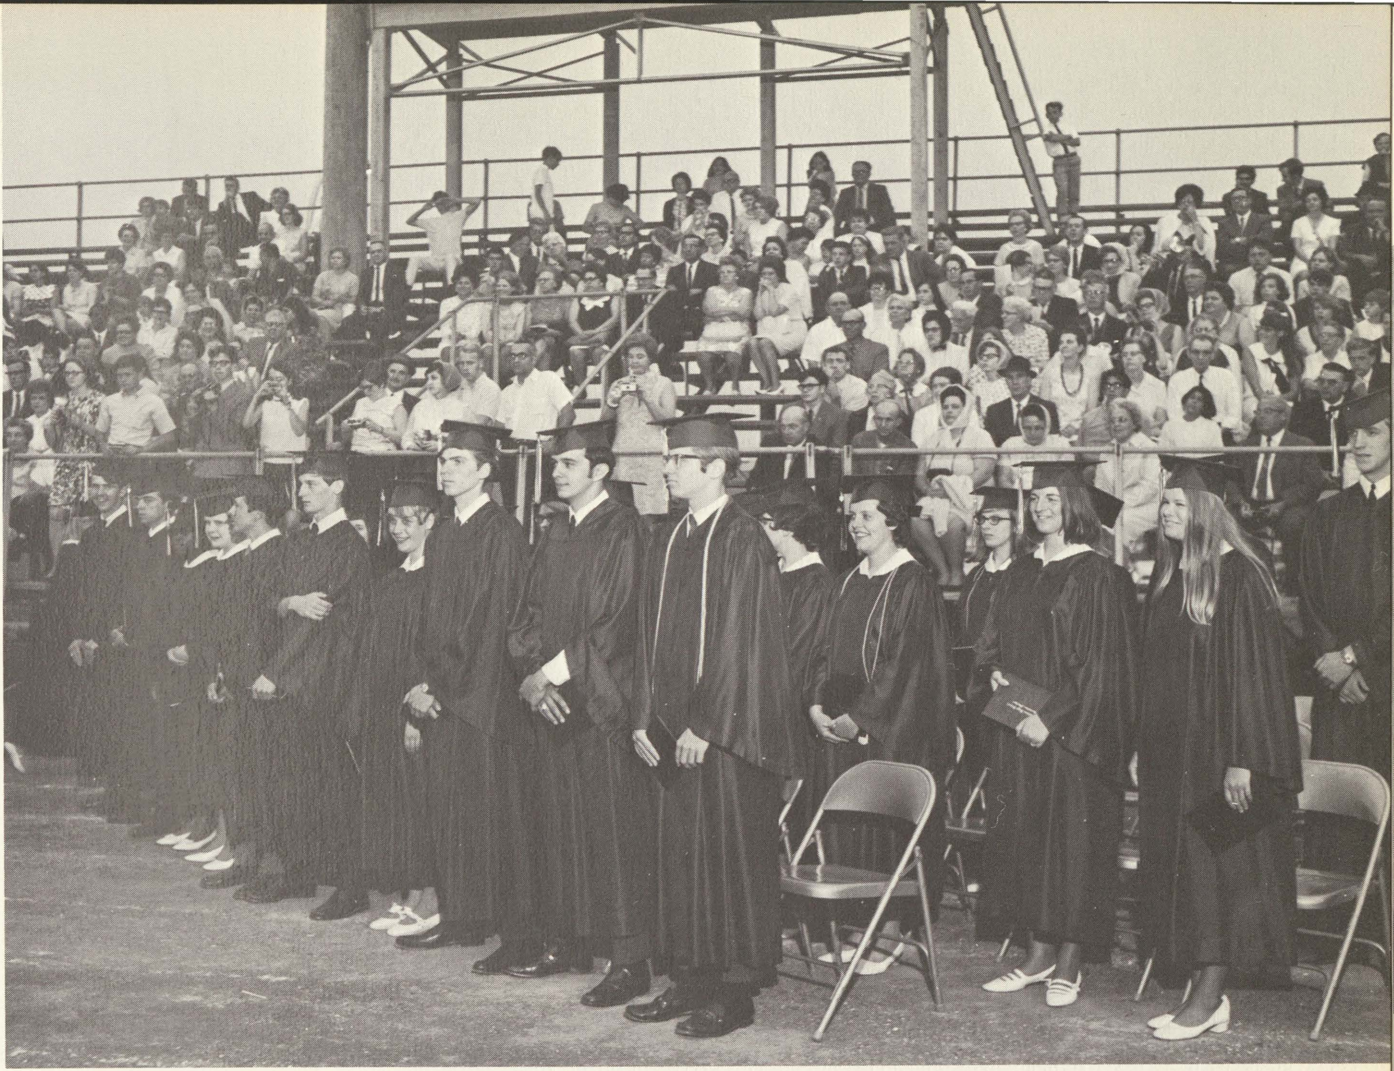

"Evening in Paris" Enjoyed by All

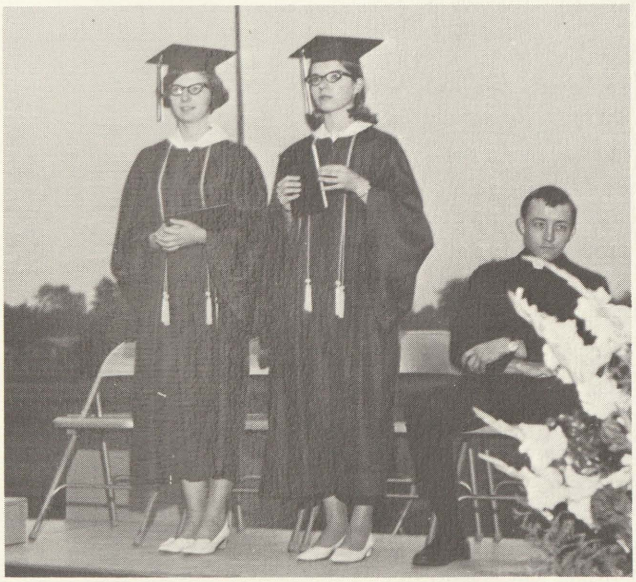

Carrollton Seniors and their dates sitting out this dance, while listening to the band.

While "The New Breed" entertains guests in the cafetorium, others enjoy a relaxing moment in the hall.

As 1969 graduation comes to a finale, ex-students await Senior Party.

A serious moment for Valedictorian and Salutitorian.

Prom is the traditional way for the Juniors to honor the Seniors in their last months of high school. The 68 - 69 Prom, "Evening in Paris" turned out to be just that. Guests danced to the music of the "New Breed". This was just a beginning for the Seniors who in a short time would be graduating. The moment finally arrived when they would go out into the world leaving high school memories behind. For each one new and exciting experiences lie ahead.

Half-Time Ceremonies Lead To Coronation

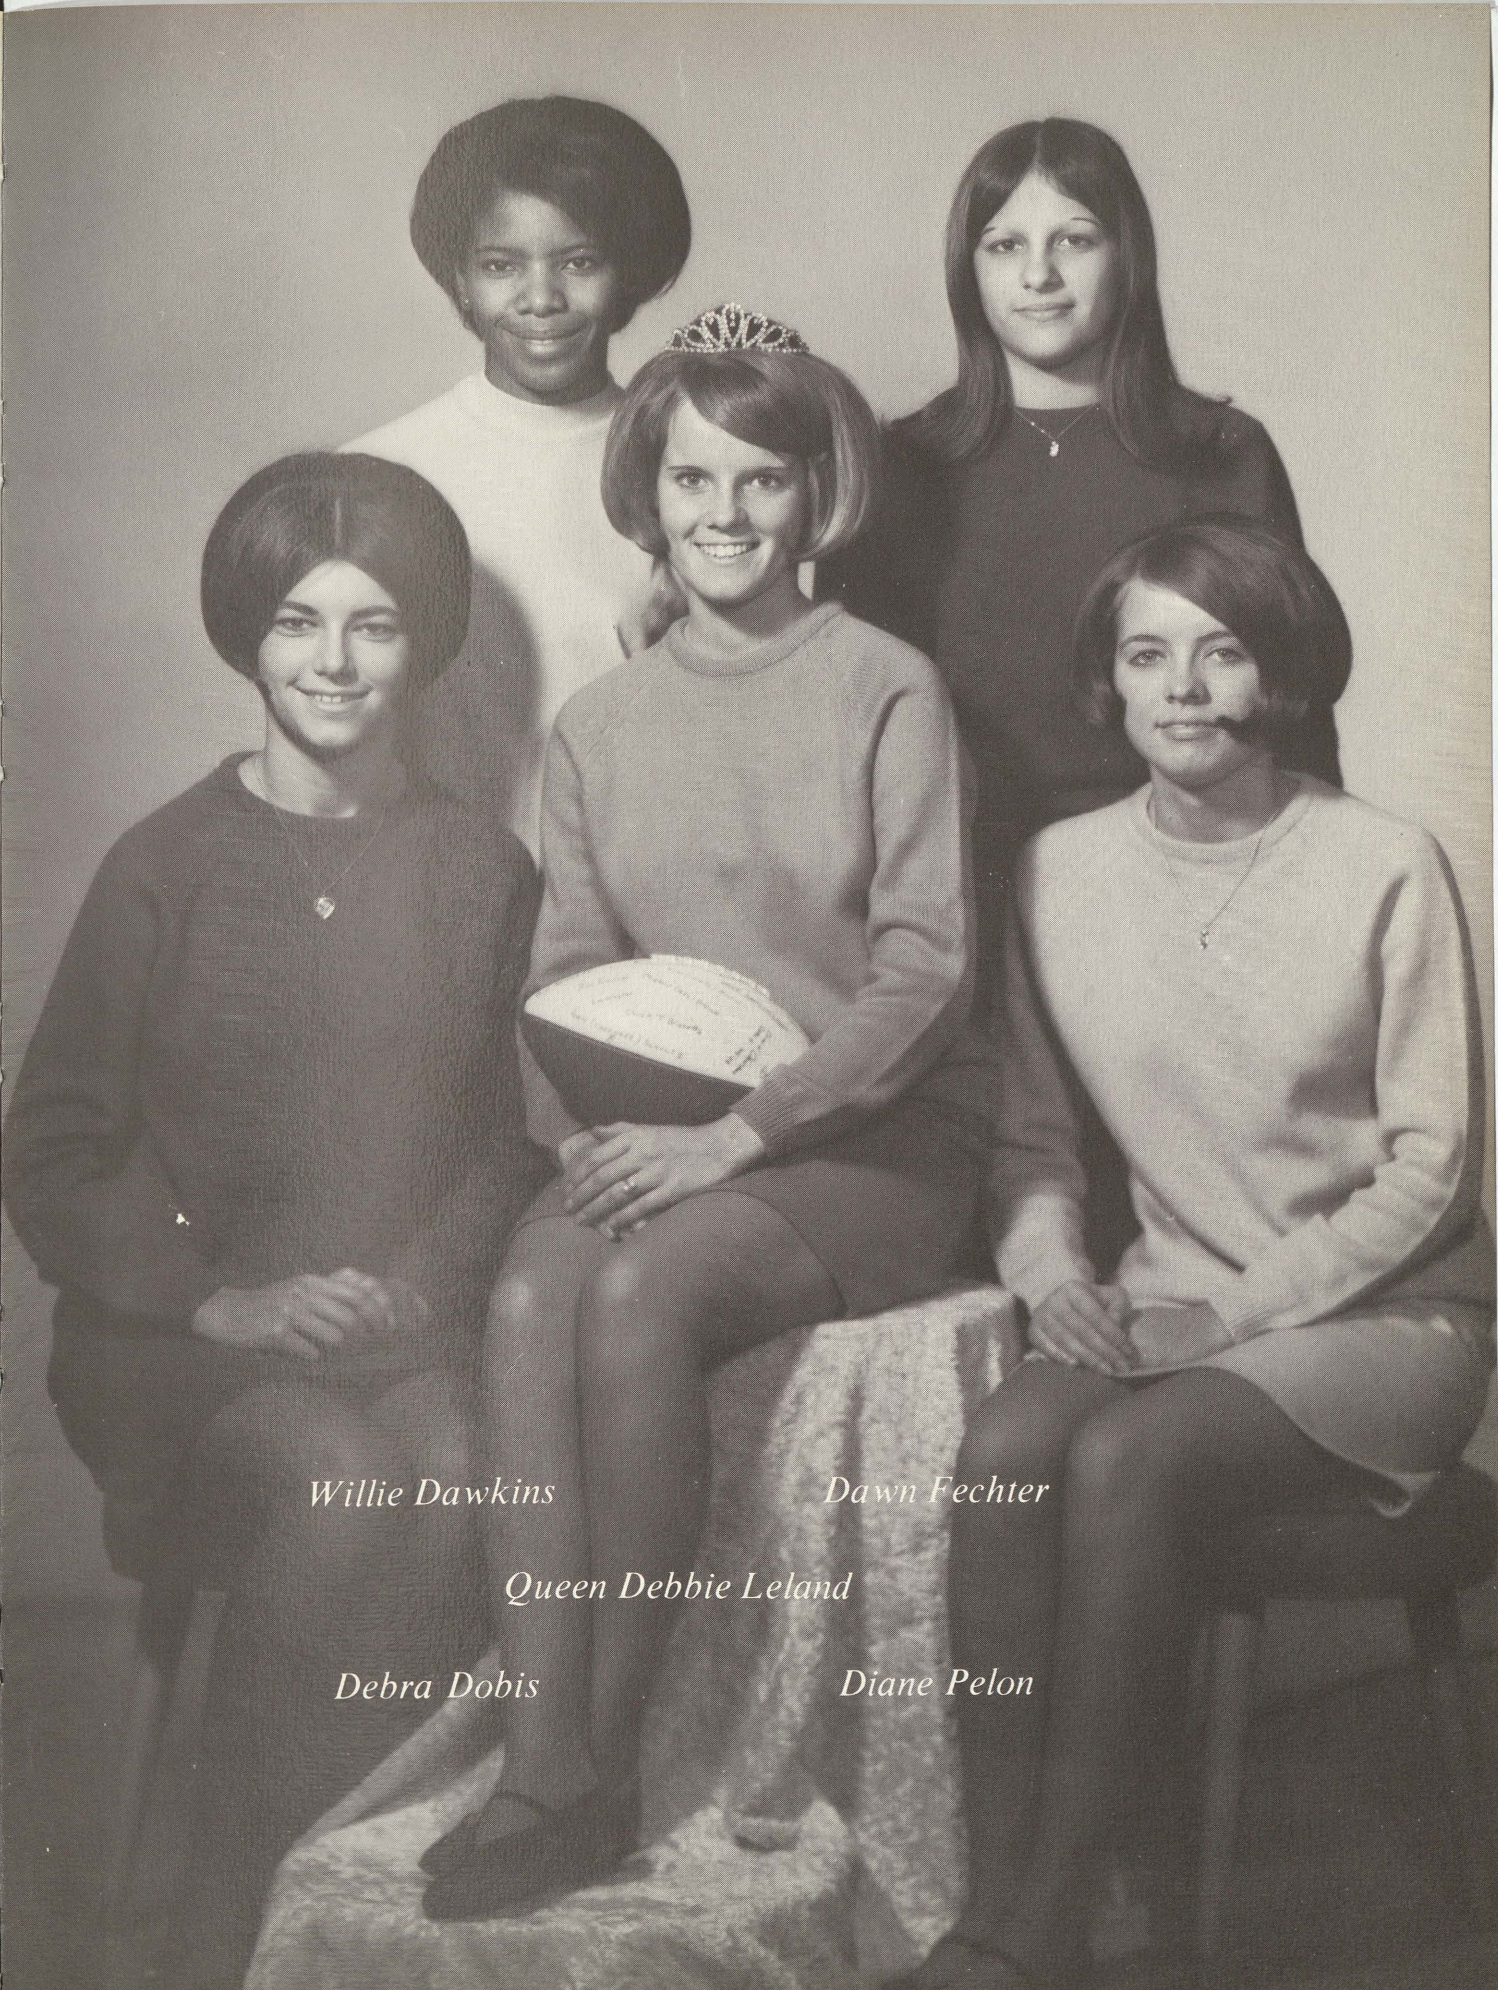

1969-70 Homecoming Court looks on as Deb receives football from John Schultz.

"It all came so fast, the parade, sitting in an open car, seeing all those people waving. All I wanted in my mind was to be smiling and to be happy.

That night four other girls and I rode around the field. Standing in front of the crowd, the band became quiet and the people's eyes were only on us. The silence made me even more scared. Then Marilyn Foley looked at me and announced my name. I was filled with the happiest and most beautiful thoughts I'd ever felt."

Tears of joy are shed as Alumni Queen Marilyn Foley crowns '69 Queen Deb Leland.

Bonfire sparks Cavalier spirit

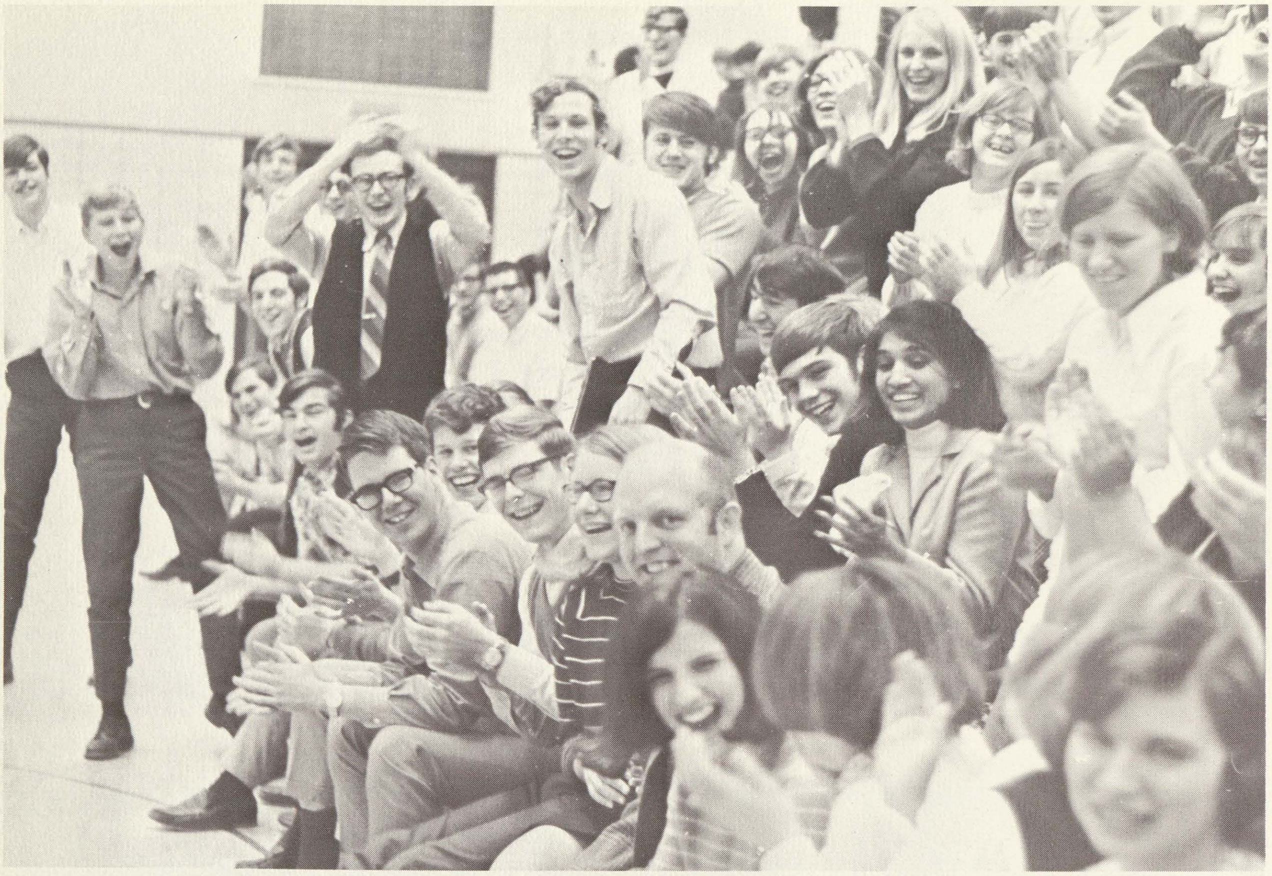

Homecoming Week Reaches Thrilling Climax

Sounds of "Cavaliers got soul" "Fire up for a victory" and "Let's go, Cavaliers," rang through the halls of CHS, as the seventh annual Homecoming Week came to a finale. The week was filled with unusual mishaps experienced by all. Throughout the week of October 6-10, the 1969-70 Homecoming Court was chosen, contests were won and spirits were constantly being raised. Half-time came as the 1968-69 Alumni Queen Marilyn Foley crowned the 1969-70 Queen, Deb Leland. Following the game, at the dance music was provided by "The New Breed."

During one of Carrollton's many pep assemblies, (December 12) a few faculty and senior boys presented a pom-pom routine for the pleasure of the student body. The "pom-pom girls" highlighted their routine by presenting Mr. Kolleth with a shower of kisses. The reaction of the student body, with the show of such abnormal affection, resulted in pandenonium.

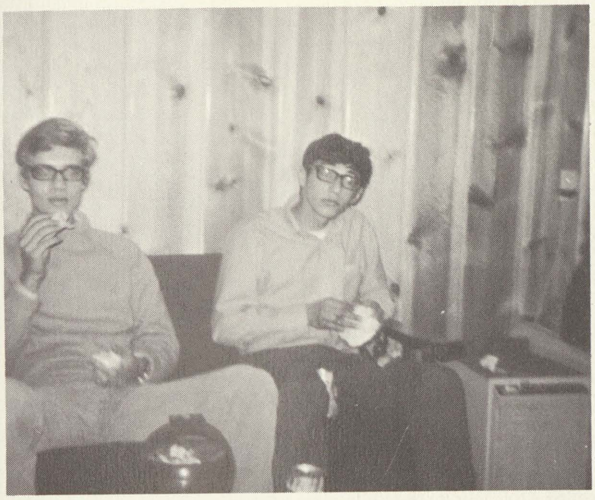

On December 4,5 and 6th, Carrollton High School presented a thrilling melodrama entitled "Little Nell."

Under the direction of Mr. John Smithson and Mrs. Pamela Dundas, the play displayed several unusual forms of talent.

Dawn Woodrow, Cathy Tomaszewski, Michael Weiss, Butch Rousseau as seen in the production "Little Nell."

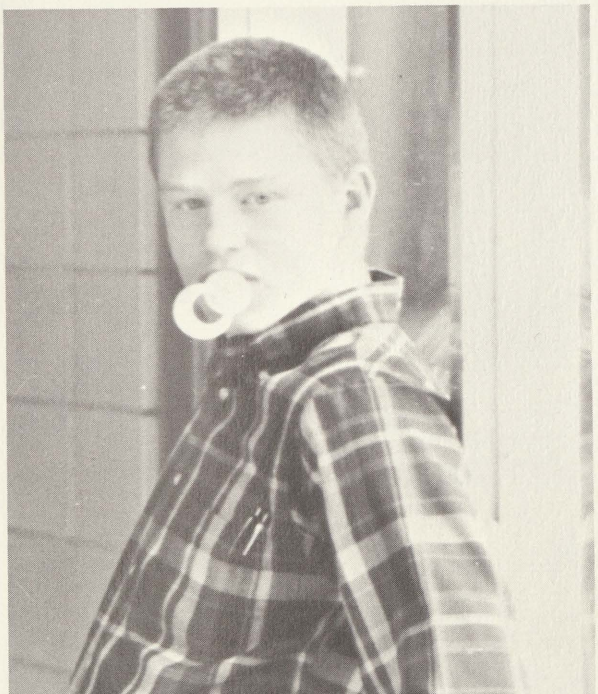

Unusual Activities Occur Often At CHS

Seniors, Andy Nilsson and Chuck Brissette busy themselves, making flowers for the Senior float.

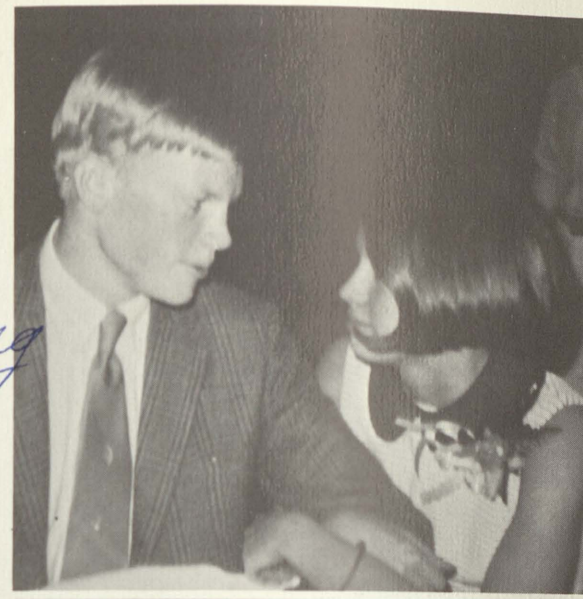

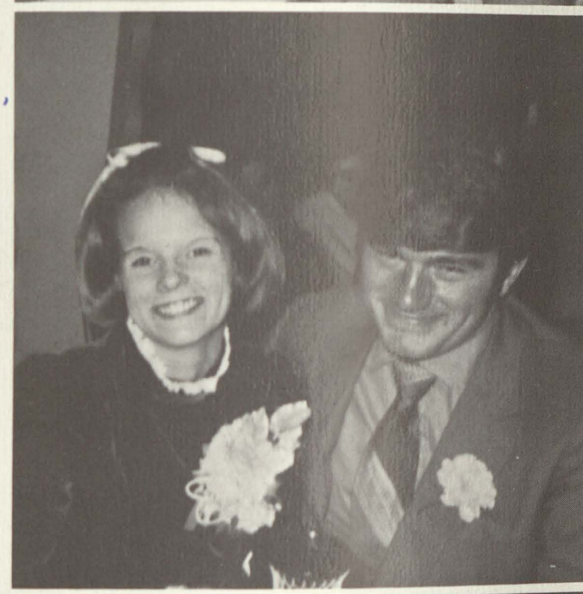

Cheerleaders and advisors lead the student body in Homecoming snake dance.

Couples Danced, While Outside, It Snowed

While resting between songs, John Schultz, Dawn Fechter, Rick Beird and Jeanne Eash listen to the music provided by "The Zoo."

On December 30, the Student Council of CHS sponsored "SnoBall," the annual Christmas dance. A good time was had by all who attended, as they danced to the music of "The Zoo."

There was free refreshments for all to enjoy while taking time between numbers to rest. Both students and chaperons danced 'til midnight then left, each to his own enjoyment.

Andy Nilsson, Charles Sherman, Guy Golomb and Merry Lynn Thornton sit this one out.

Pep Week Brings Many Peculiarities

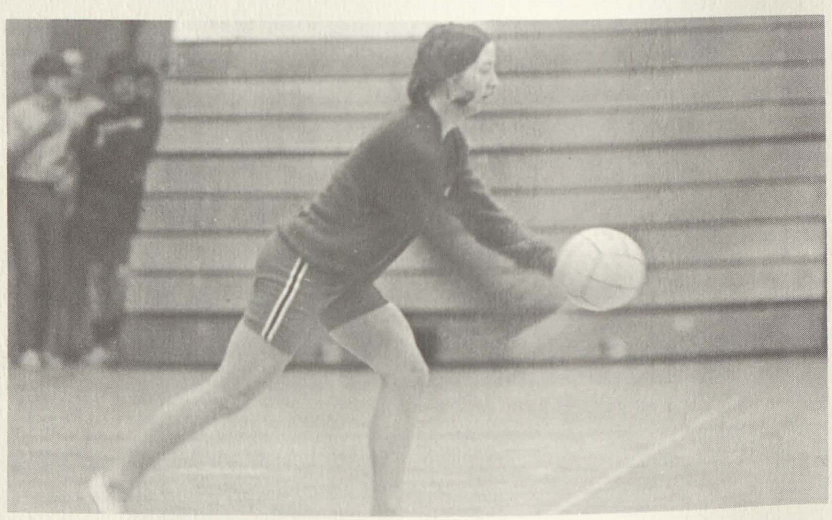

All-Stater Candidate, George Kubiak, shoots high over a Standish Panther on the Friday, Feb. 13th Pep Week game.

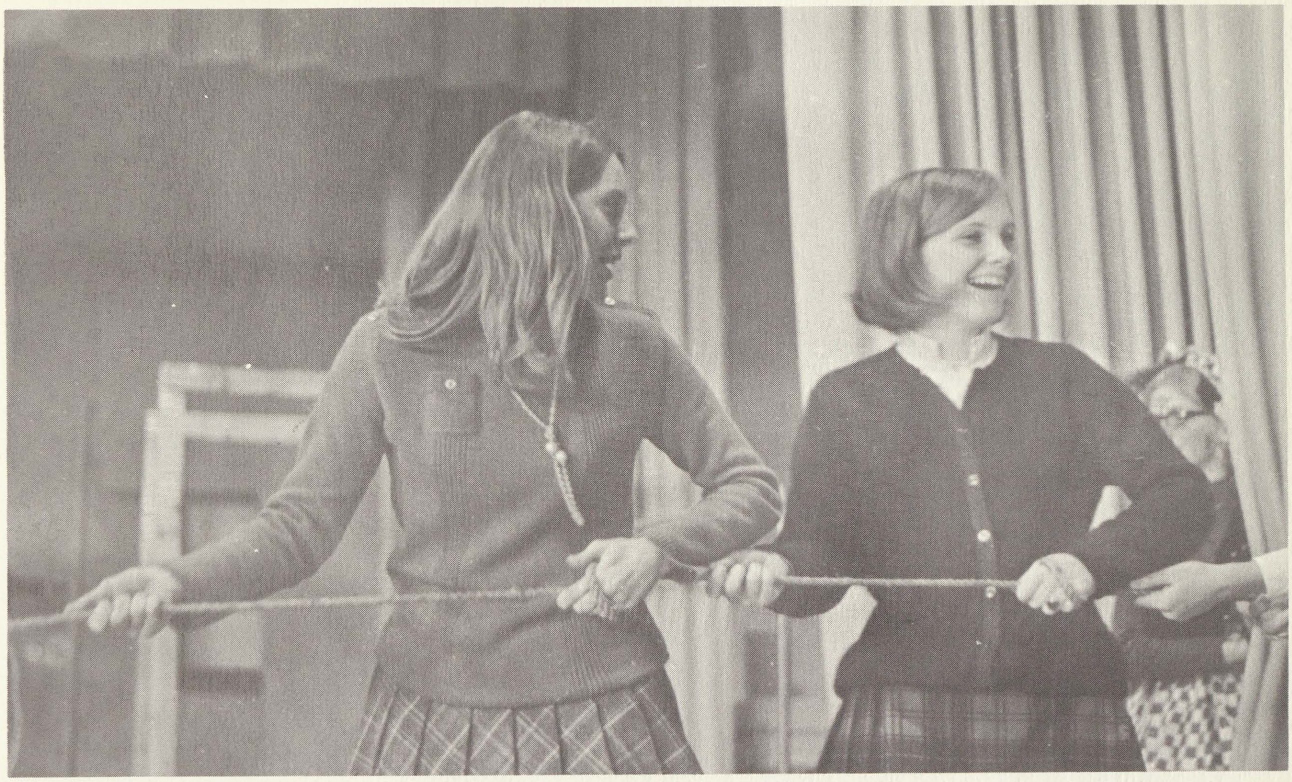

Tug-of-War, Slave Sales, Box Lunches were among the many activities which took place during Pep Week.

Our mighty Cavaliers, both Varsity and Junior Varsity teams, took two double victories. The first one came on February 10, over Essexville Garber, while on February 13th, they were victorious over a strong Standish Sterling team.

Following the game Friday, the Senior class sponsored a dance, with music provided by "The Zoo." This brought to a successful end Pep Week-1970.

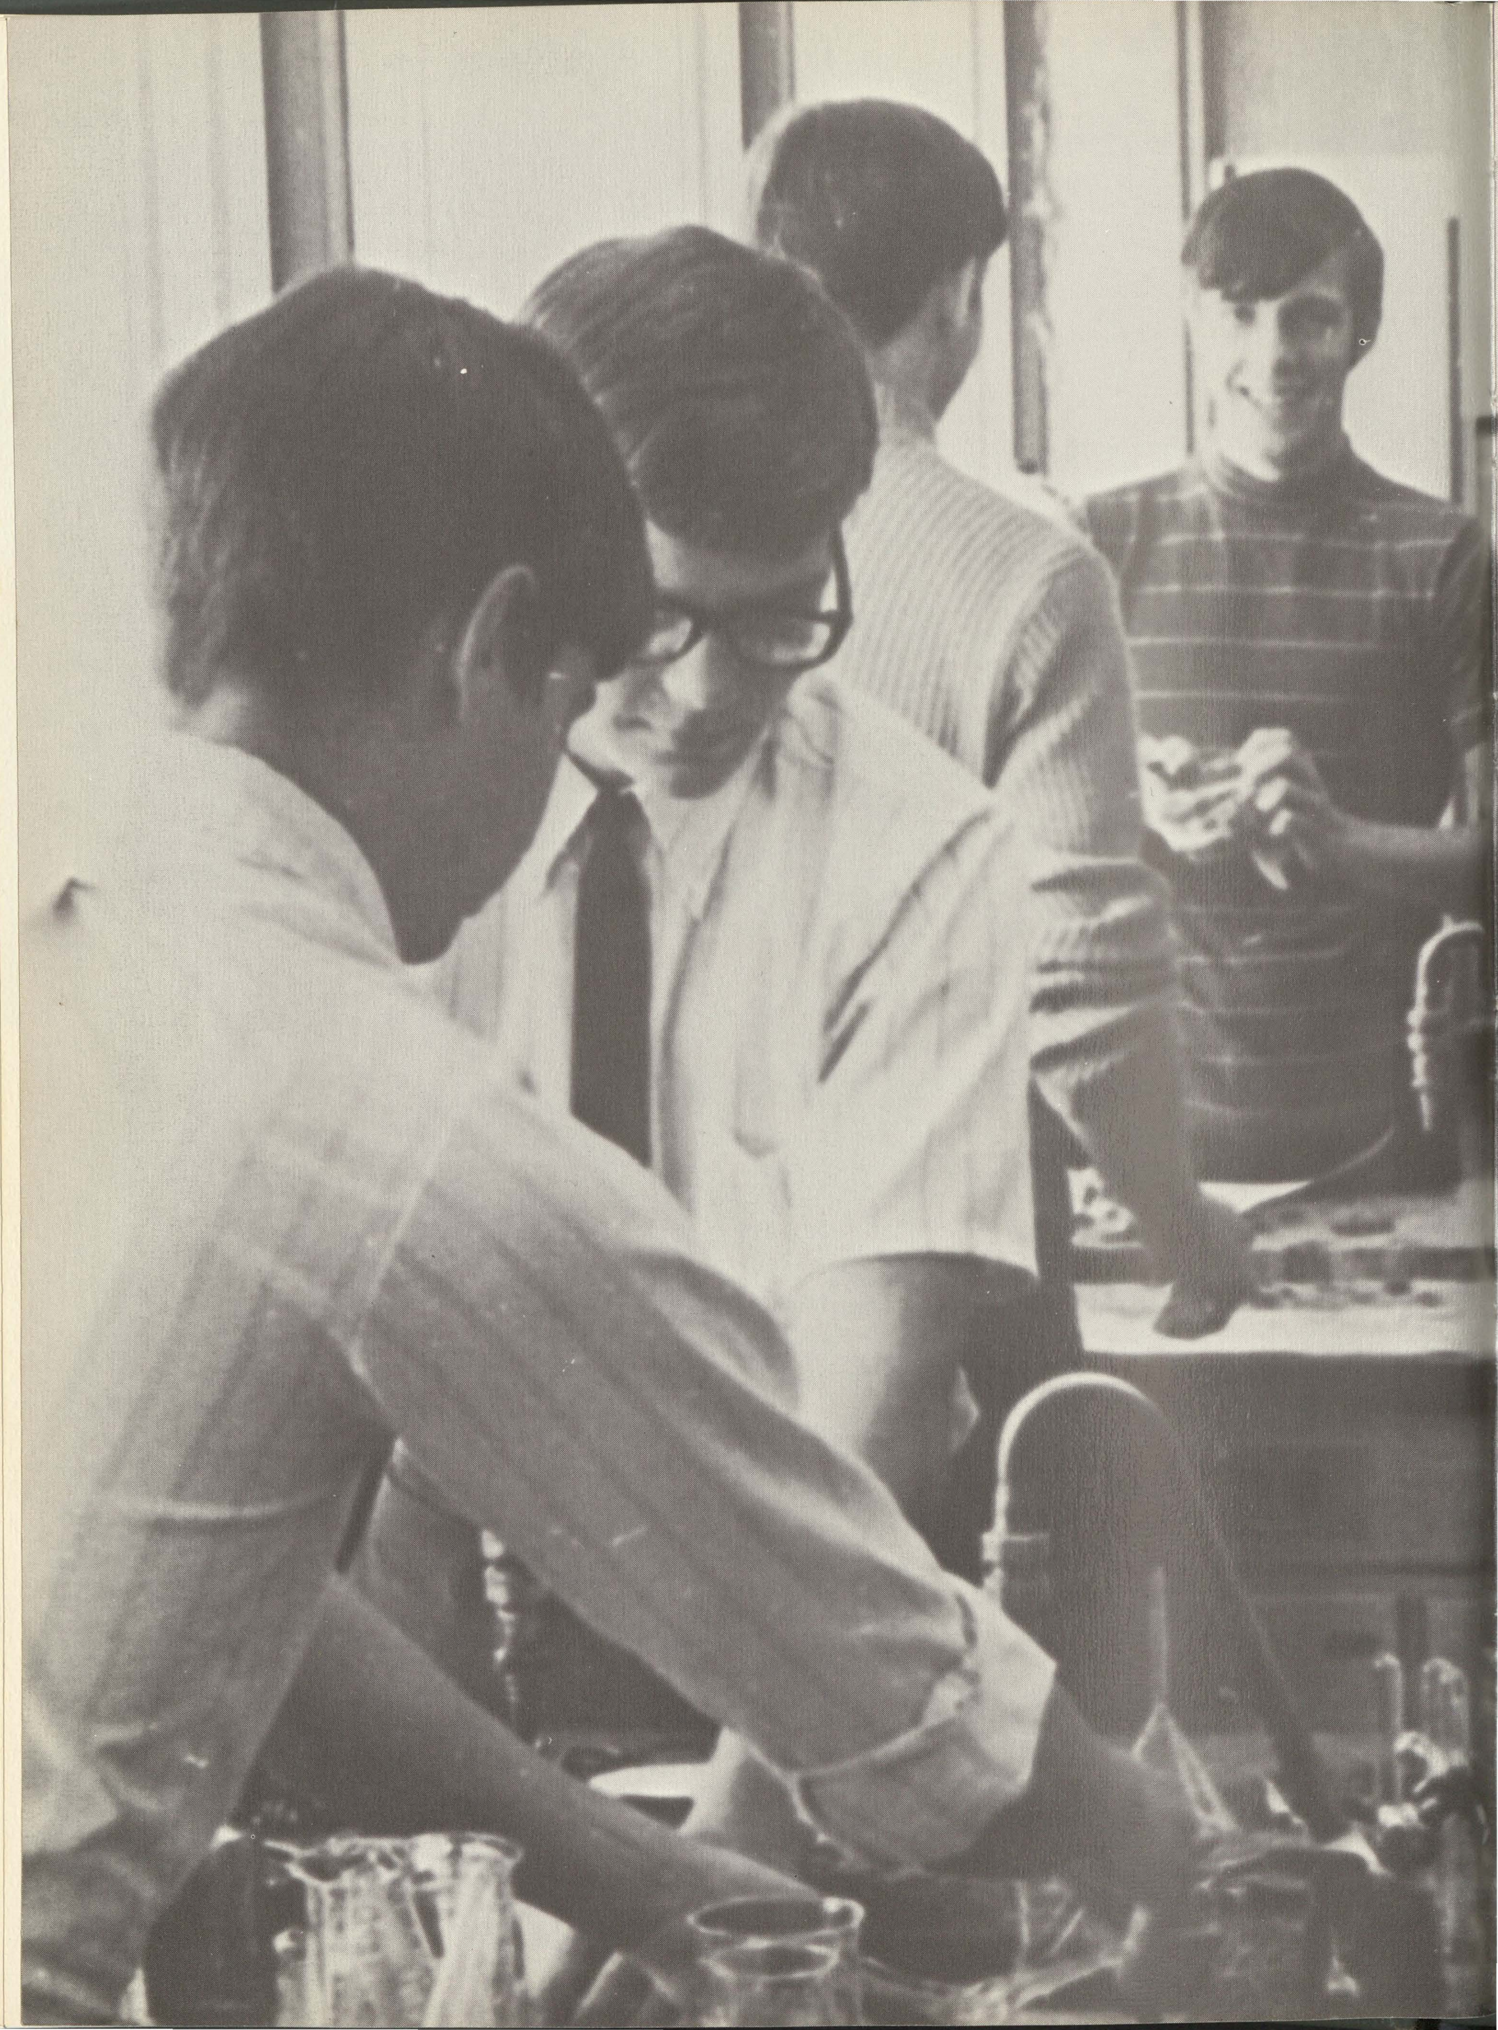

Miss Sally Sanford, Girls Physical Education teacher, displays her feminine co-ordination while playing the Junior girls in a game of volleyball.

Carol Wesolek and Maureen Conley participate in lunch hour activities at a tug-of-war between the Juniors and the Seniors.

Forward, John Schultz shoots over Rouges' DeWayne Johnson for two points in the State Finals on March 21.

The Cavaliers accept the Class 'B' State Runner-up trophy at Jenison Field House in Lansing.

Anticipation, anxiety, tension-Varsity Cheerleaders wait for the final outcome of State Finals, where each pass seemed to portray seconds between victory and defeat.

Carrollton's All-Stater, George Kubiak puts in two in the Cavaliers' loss to River Rouge, 76-66.

The Mighty Cavaliers advanced into Regionals by defeating Buena Vista, 74-61, to take the first District title in the history of Carrollton.

At the Flint IMA, Carrollton crushed Imlay City, 79-63, and Fenton, 65-54, which placed their record to 21-0.

From Flint, they traveled to Grand Blanc to defeat Detroit De La Salle, 70-66, placing them in the Semifinals against Muskegon Heights.

The Cavaliers, making it their first at Jenison in Lansing, took their 23rd victory as they came out the victors against the Tigers of Muskegon, 88-86. The victory at Jenison gave Carrollton the right to play the defending State Champs, River Rouge, where the Cavaliers displayed superb teamwork and sportsmanship, matched by no team in the state, as they graciously accepted the Class 'B' State Runner-Up trophy, after losing to River Rouge, 76-66.

Surely the Cavaliers have had an exceptional season, which can only be expected of an exceptional team.

Congratulations Cavaliers, on a season well-deserved.

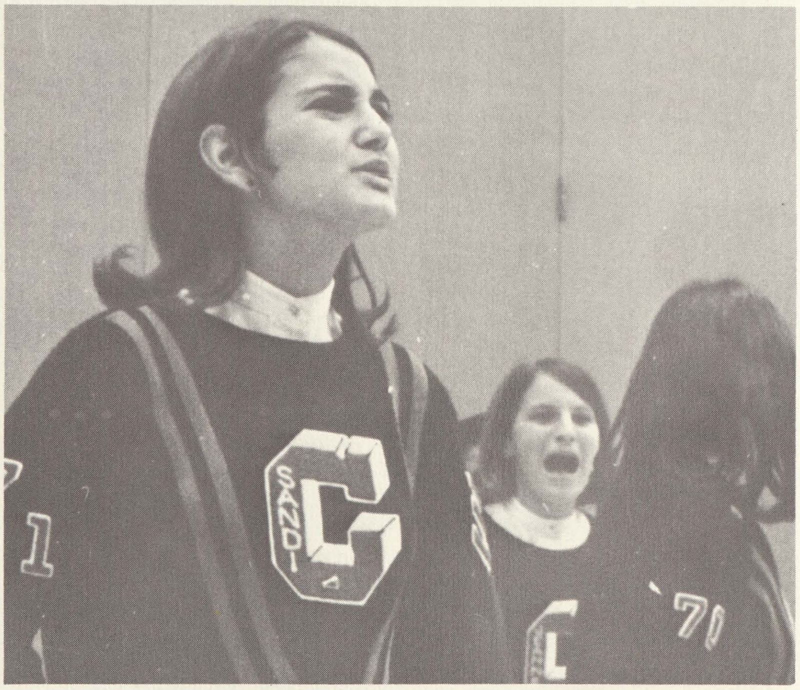

1969-70 Varsity Cheerleaders: (L. TO R.), Captain, Dawn Fechter, Jeanne Eash, (BASE), Jenean Menapace, Kristie Scott, Sandi Paez, Co-captain; Merry Lynn Thornton, (FOREGROUND), Cheryl Fisher.

Cheerleaders Follow Cavaliers To Victory

Cheerleading camp disturbed summer vacation for our Cheerleaders. Our Varsity and Freshman squads traveled to Bluffton College, Bluffton Ohio, and our J. V. squad ventured to Ferris College, Big Rapids Michigan.

On October 11th, the Varsity squad won honors by taking 1st place among area school competition.

A mini-tramp has also been added to highlight the spirit they display.

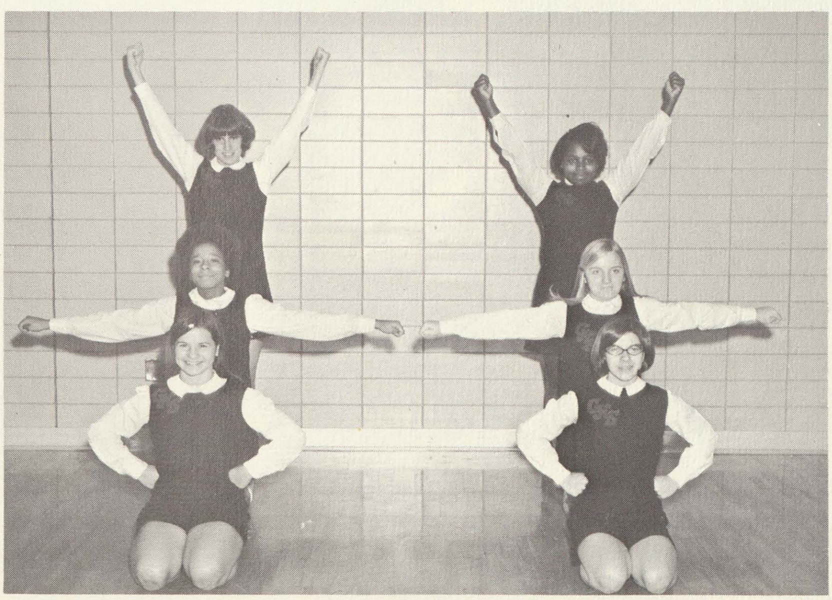

Sandy Paez exclaims: "Cavaliers are Cool!"

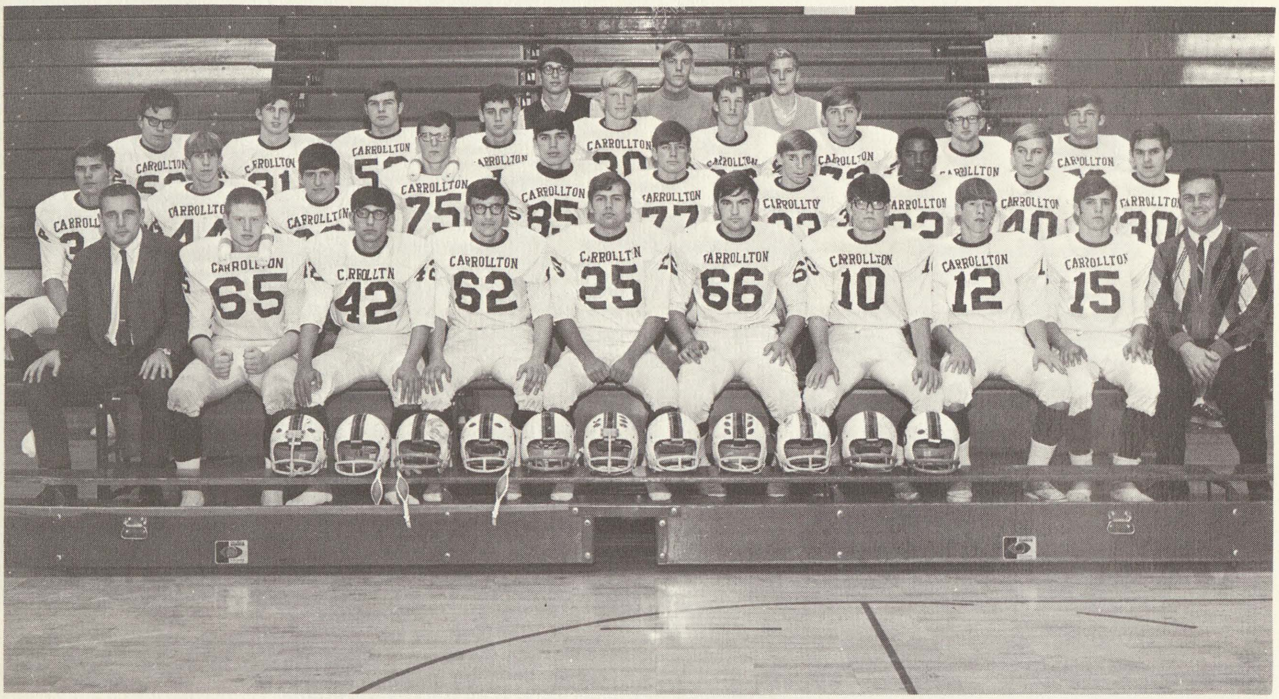

"I like the Cavaliers. . . this much!" so says Peggy Webb.

What better way to end the regular season then undefeated.

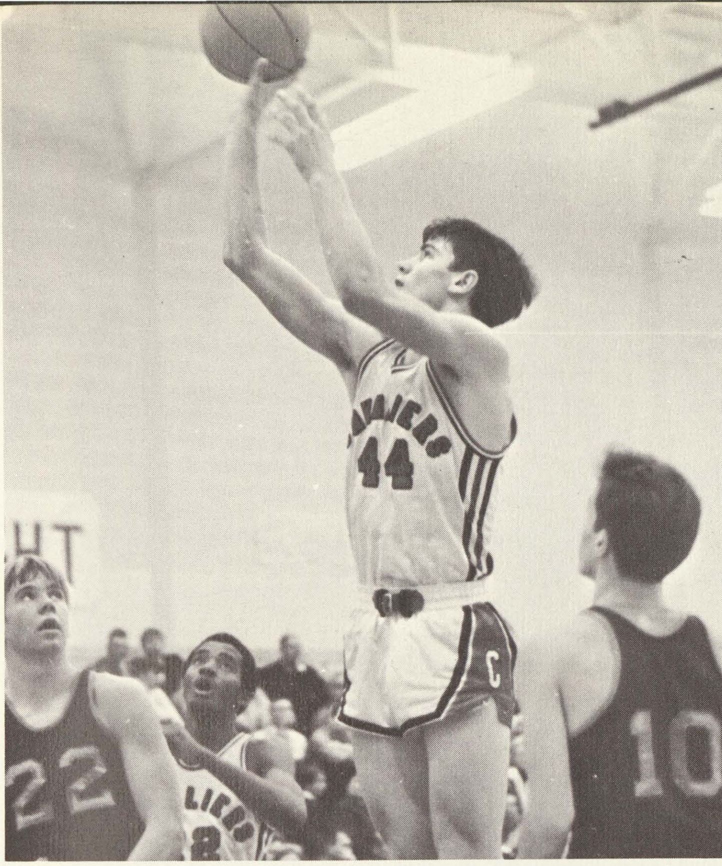

Coach Vondette and the Cavaliers have put forth a tremendous effort and have come up on top.

They have been rated the number 1 team in the area and the number 1 class B team in the state.

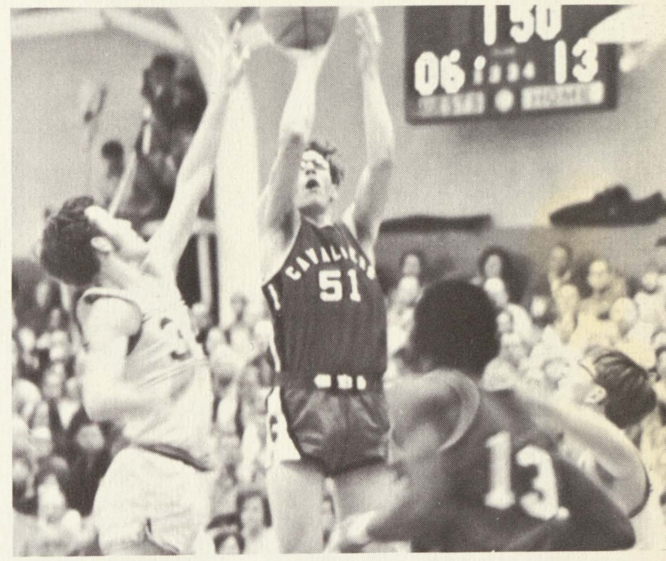

George Kubiak led the team with his great rebounding and scoring. George averaged 25.6 points a game and pulled down 12 rebounds per game. George also broke the school scoring record on Feb. 13, 1970 in a game against Standish.

Soaring through the air before opposition and teammates to get to the Cavalier basket is Rex Jones.

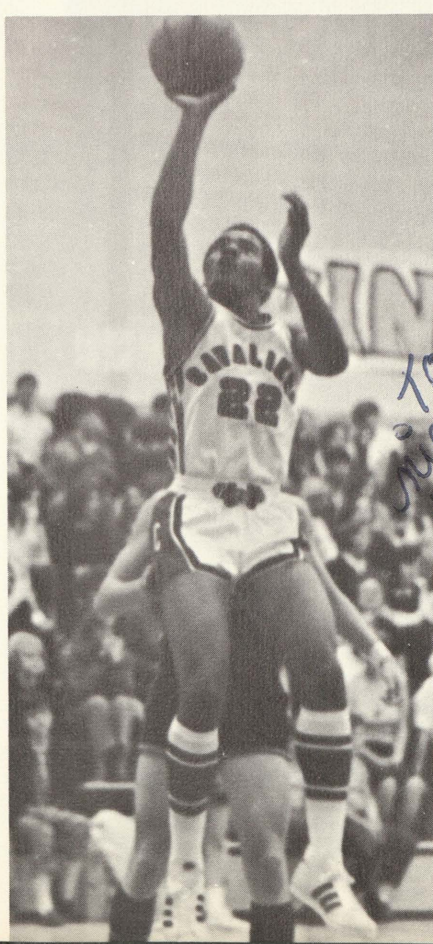

George Kubiak goes up for an easy two points.

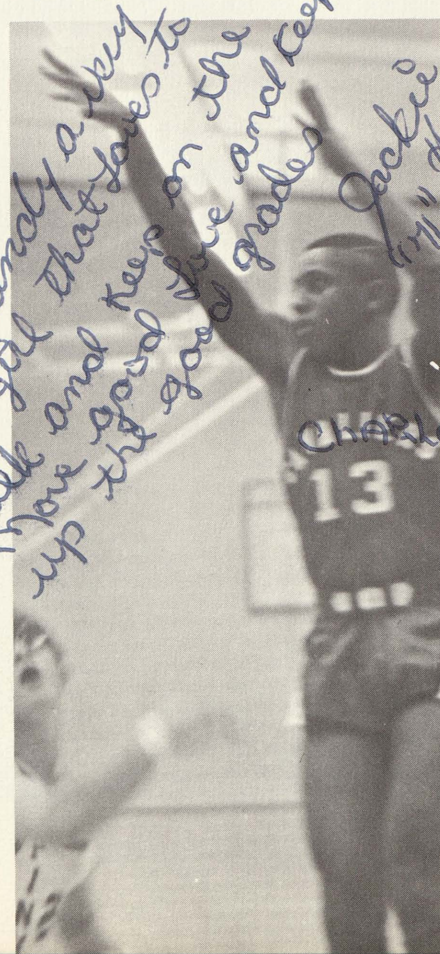

John Schultz sets to shoot while being guarded by two Oscoda Owls.

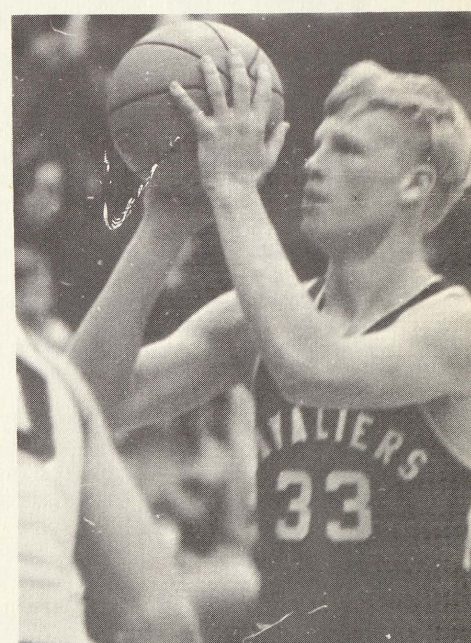

Jimmie Nichols displays his shooting technique.

Guard Charlie Shells releases the ball for two points.

A foul takes Lee Wegner to the charity line.

Chesaning To Flint IMA, Finally Lansing

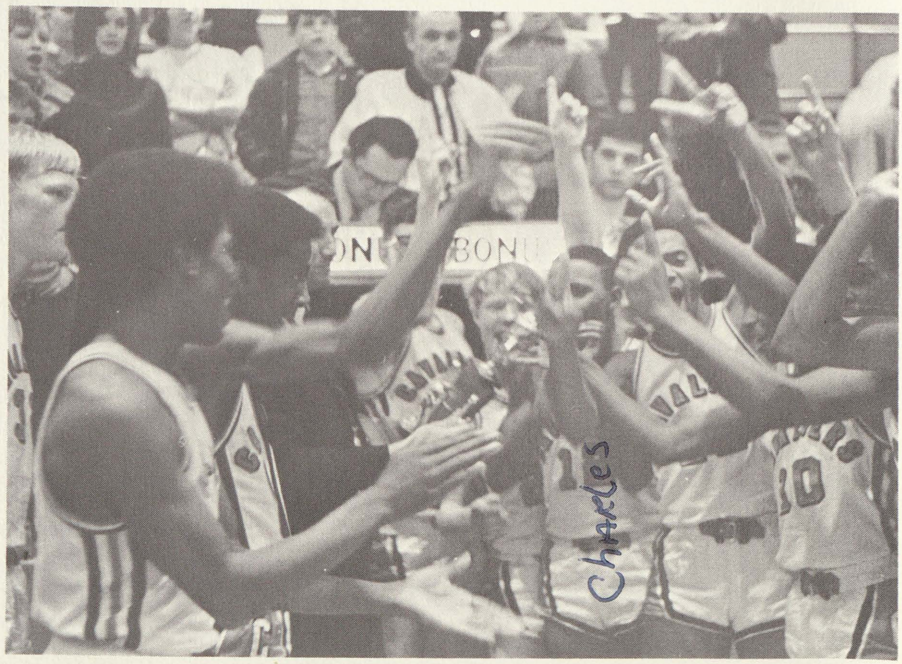

The Cavaliers accept the Otisville-Lakeville Christmas tournament trophy with beaming faces of Pride and Joy.

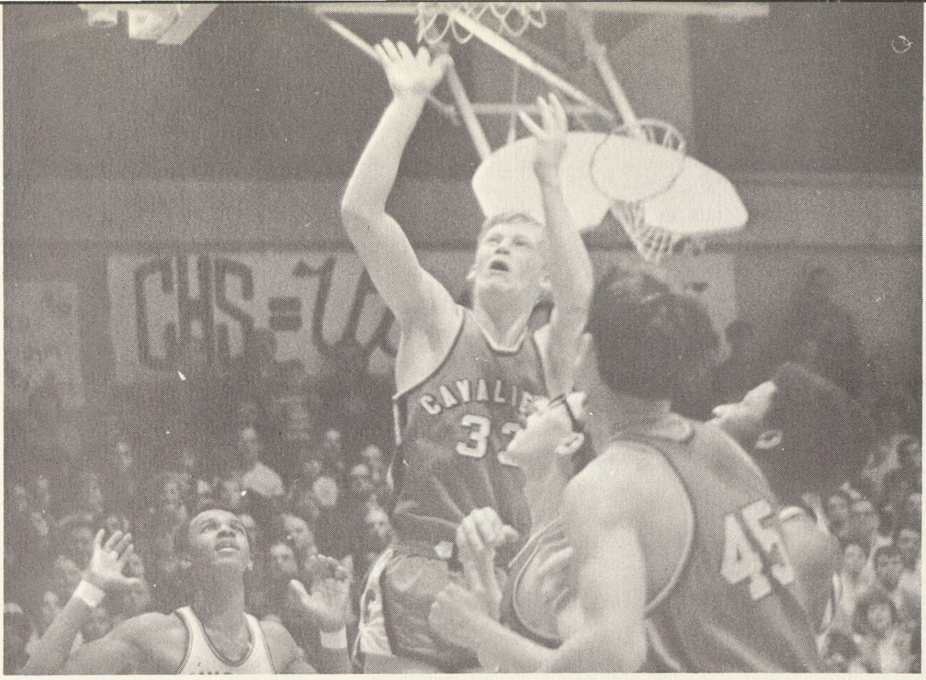

The tough Cavaliers won the Otisville-Lakeville Christmas tournament by handing Montrose a 76-63 loss, Laker High a 83-57 loss, and Otisville a 83-53 defeat.

A "Team of the Week" plaque was awarded to Coach Vondette and his ball-hungary Cavaliers by the 7-UP Company.

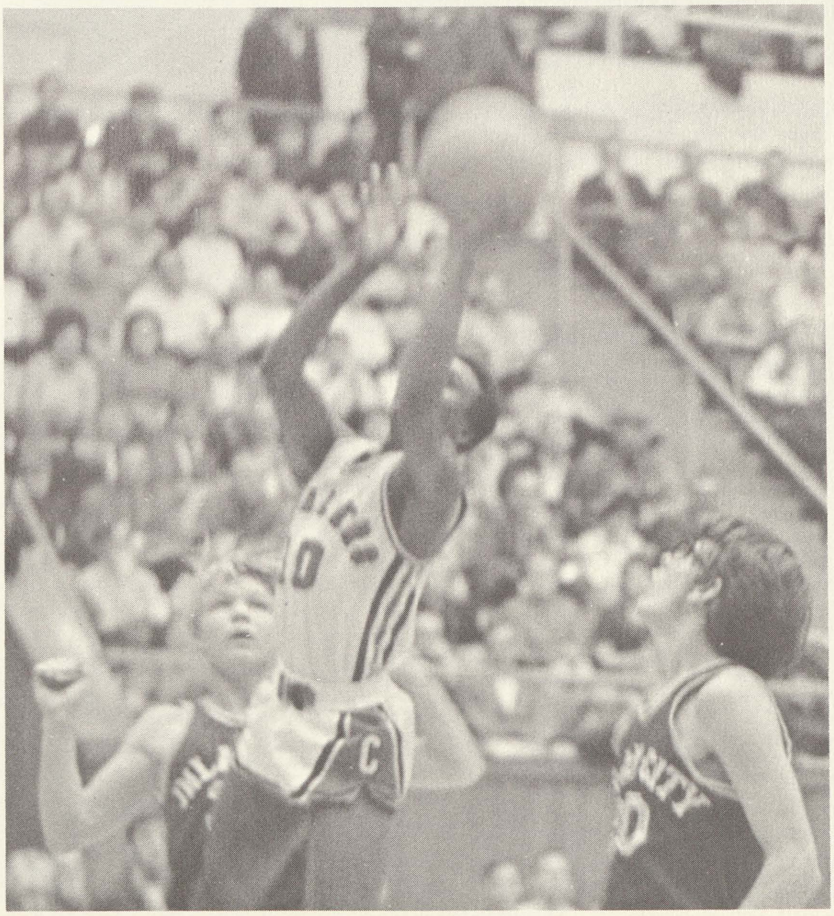

Success was designated to Carrollton, when they completed a clean slate of 0 defeats with 16 victorious conference games.

The Cavaliers display the "winners symbol" after receiving the NBC conference trophy.

Senior Lee Wegner, goes up for two in the Cavaliers' win over Buena Vista in the District Championship game. Slmond (34) from B.V. seems to give a hopeless gesture and gets back for the "Mighty Cavalier."

Rex Jones goes up for a Cavalier basket, while two Imlay opponents look on. Rex accumulated 31 points during the game.

1969-70 seems to be the "big basketball year" for the mighty Cavaliers.

They ran away with the Conference Championship with no defeats. For the first year they've won a District by stopping A.H. Tech and Buena Vista.

Higher goals were achieved when the Cavaliers beat Imlay and whipped Fenton for the Regional 15 Championship.

Rex Jones was high scoring ace against Imlay with 31 points to put the Cavaliers on their way to the Regional Finals. George Kubiak contributed 28 points against Fenton for the Championship.

Working long hours after school, during vacations, and at night, the yearbook staff tried to make their deadlines in order to get their book out on time. Writing body copy, making layouts, searching for "lost" pictures and making headlines are just a few of the jobs the limited staff had to do to complete their book.

Frustrations, anger, and joy were just a few of the emotions that were displayed in room 135.

"Excuse me, but could you tell me where room 135 is?"
"Guess we proved the Sophomores could be the best class in school!"
"I got in from prom at four a.m.! How about you?"
"Seniors are advised to contact Mrs. Springer about future plans."

It came and went in four years. Four years, such a long time and yet such a short time now that it's over. As Freshmen WE CAME, the possibilities of a great class, greater than all its predecessors. As Sophomores and Juniors WE SAW how close we were to fulfilling our dreams. As Seniors WE CONQUERED! Finally four years of work and stress, of loves and hates, of successes and failures, of pushing and pushing, comes to an end. And for what? Are we expected upon graduation to immediately assume adult roles in our society? Are we all of a sudden supposed to appreciate what it is we've tried so hard to learn? Are we all at once adults? responsible citizens? cool? NO!! When we walked through those glass doors on September 6, 1966 we were expected; we had demands placed on us; we were supposed to. Not today, not June 11, 1970. Nothing is expected of us. Expectation is a thing of our pasts, our futures, but not our presents. For those of us who started lining up to our futures four years ago, Graduation Day 1970 will prove that for us Seniors, A Song of Myself is A Song of Success.

Sandy: To a nice Junior soon to be a Senior. Now that I'm a Senior I think and almost out. I'm going to miss the friends still left in school. God Bless & Take Care

Linda "70"

Sandy: To a sweet girl. This year we were Bad Jrs. But next year we will be even Bader cause we will be Srs. Remember all the fun we've had in Consumers Ed. Be good and take care. The Best of luck always.
